

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Quilters,

Happy Upcoming Holidays! I hope you enjoy whichever ones you choose to celebrate, in small ways, big ways, public and private ways. My family has an overabundance of birthdays this time of year, so we are busy with those as well.

As most of you know, I was at the Houston International Quilt Festival, taking a small foray into teaching at an incredible, overwhelming, quilting celebration. And I was purely delighted to discover that in Houston, our very own Tucson Quilters' Guild had vendors, teachers, and winners, at this very highest level of competition. Our guild is a real powerhouse, and I am amazed and delighted at the level of quilting that our guild community continues to support.

I am looking forward to seeing all of the president's challenge quilts that have been turned in—there are over twenty. I will be organizing them for all of you to vote on at the December meetings. And I've just thought it might be fun to award an extra ribbon for the person whose quilt has the most buttons. Of course if someone goes completely berserk with buttons, as I tend to do, they will be tough to count accurately! I do already know there is quite a size and style range, so they will be fun for all of us to see. And because I will be president for another year, I will have the fun of coming up with another challenge for 2021! I do have some ideas, but you will all have to wait until next March!

See you all in December, and as you get ready for the end of one year, and the beginning of a new one, take good care of yourselves and your loved ones.

Happy Holidays, or as my doctor's office has posted, Happy Christmahanakwanzika!

Yours in Quilting,

Karen G. Fisher

President

DRESS

PROGRAM

Thank you each and every one who adopted, dressed and returned your bear(s) this year. You are amazing - the beautifully outfitted bears; AND those super special ladies who knit/crochet sweaters for our bears and the lovely fleece blankets with crocheted edges.

I have 30 bears designated for Family First Pregnancy Care Center and Diaper Bank located in Oracle AZ . . . the director, Clare, is so excited because 15 bears (to be delivered by the end of November) will be given to children at their Christmas party in December. Fifteen bears will be set aside for the first responders and given to children in adverse situations.

This plan will become a year around program so that bears can be provided, not just at the holiday, but whenever we have them available and they are needed. These children come to these shelters/crisis centers all year long. Won't it be special to have one for a child in April or August or whenever?

Thank you again,

Joyce Bott,

MORE GUILD NEWS

FROM THE SHELVES -

Last month the Guild received several books on hand quilting: Perfecting the Stitch, Fine Hand Quilting, Flawless Hand Quilting, and Tiny Stitches. All have good advice and interesting patterns. As I was looking through the category of "Quilting-Hand" I discovered another book we already had in our collection, 250 Continuous-Line Quilting Designs for Hand, Machine and LongArm Quilters, this book is beautiful! The drawings they're creating with needle and thread are very impressive. I don't know if I could do these drawings with pencil and erasers what they've done with thread. If you want inspiration, check out this book by Laura Lee Fritz.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO

HANG QUILTS

We need your help hanging quilts to make the 2020 Quilt Fiesta happen. We will hang the quilts on Thursday, February 20. Contrary to what you were told at the October meeting, you DO NOT have to climb a ladder to hang quilts. There are plenty of jobs for those who don't climb ladders.

To volunteer, please email Beverly Reiter at delft54@cox.net or Kathy Zimmer at kapplique@aol.com. You can also sign up at the November General meetings with Kathy Zimmer at the back of the room.

SUPPORTS EMERGE

VINTAGE QUILT TURNING

Here is one last reminder that your entry form for the 2020 Vintage Quilt Turning is due by December 1, 2019. Just print the form from the website, fill it out and send it in. Everything you need to know is on the form. The committee is looking forward to sharing the story of your vintage treasure with our quilt show guests. If you have any questions, please contact Kathie Miller at kmmmiller@hotmail.com.

2020 SMALL QUILT AUCTION

We have many wonderful entries for the small Quilt Auction but we need more to make a meaningful donation to EMERGE!, a provider of support to victims of domestic abuse. Emerge provides an emergency hotline, emergency shelter and access to counseling, education and lay legal advice. You can find more information online at www.emergecenter.org.

Please consider creating or finishing a small quilt to benefit this critical agency!

Quilt entries need not be complicated. Requirements are a perimeter 100 inches or less, a two inch hanging,,,,,,,,,,,,, sleeve and a completed entry form, see page 7. Quilts can take a variety of forms- wall hangings, table runners, doll quilts or any form you can imagine. Quilters have submitted original designs, pieces made from leftover blocks, blocks of the month, unfinished projects, practice studies for larger quilts, and completed "lamentable" blocks which are available at guild meetings. Making small quilts can be considered "plactice"- a combination of play and practice! (Term coined by Jenny Lyon). We will accept small quilts through December so you still have time to complete a donation! Donated small quilts will be available for purchase through a silent auction at the 2020 Quilt Fiesta. Each quilt will have a beginning bid amount as well as a "buy it now" price. Quilts will be priced reasonably so they will sell during the three day show. Winners of the auction will be contacted if not present at the close of the auction, but quilts purchased at the "buy it now" price can go home at time of purchase! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Wendy Anderson at aksk8wmn@gmail.com.

MORE QUILT FIESTA 2020 NEWS

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

The deadline for newsletter articles and ads is the 3rd Tuesday of the each month.

KIDS ROW

If all the kids get their projects completed, I'm excited to share with you that I anticipate 23 entries for Kids Row Quilt Fiesta 2020! Even if you do not have a youngster in your family... please encourage and assist the neighbor child or a child in your church to become tomorrow's quilt makers

Also, I am excited to have Sue Franklin join me as co-chair of this program.

OTHER ORGANIZATIONS ASSOCIATED WITH TQG

ARIZONA QUILT DOCUMENTATION PROJECT

Tucson Team,
Susan Franklin PhD

The Tucson team conducted a Public Documentation on November 9. Twenty-three quilts were documented; the oldest owner, accompanied by her daughters, was over 100 years old! She was wonderful and very attractive. I told her I'd like to be like her when "I grew up." Her quilt, called Whigs' Defeat, made between 1800-1849, was made by Ellen Jane Thatcher who was born in 1831. This beautiful quilt showed its age, but the quilting was impeccable.

The most popular pattern documented, to no ones' surprise, was Grandmother's Flower garden. One of the Flower Gardens had beautiful "fussy cutting" for its hexagons. Those hexagon wonders, extremely popular in the 1920s and 30s actually began in the first quarter of the 19th century. There were modern quilts, too, like the beautiful quilt made by Guild member, Christine Nelson, that she calls Fun and Fantasy.

Some quilts were made from scraps, such as from old dresses and skirts. Others from whatever happened to be at hand. Some were tied; some were hand quilted, while others were machine quilted. The fun of a public documentation is that no one knows what will come out of those bags, sheets, or pillowcases until they're put on the documenting table.

A beautifully machine pieced and hand quilted Iris quilt offers a huge contrast to the tied multi colored and fabric Squares with a small floral print strip across its top. A Friendship quilt provided lots of interest to many. Made by the Gavin County, Oklahoma, Home Economics quilters, the names were embroidered by varied individuals. Of personal interest, many of the women had the last name of Franklin!

A Yo-Yo top also joined the group, photographed on the table due to its frailty. Lovely design with yo-yos to create large diagonal squares across its top. One darling Kitty crib quilt, hand quilted, with small kittens in alternate blocks doing various tasks.

There were other quilts done, but these are a few for you to get the "feel." Public Documentations for 2020 will be at the Arizona History Museum, the first on March 21st, and the second on November 14th. Please call Kate Clark, at 520-742-1000, if you have a quilt you'd like documented.

For more information on the Tucson team, please either contact Sue Franklin at suevette63@comcast.net or 520-490-4721 or Terry Grzyb-Wysocki at terry-gw@mindspring.com or 520-904-2218.

The next documentation training session will be in early January. A date hasn't been set.

Quilt for a Cause also sold quilts and opportunity quilt tickets for our new quilt, Treasures of the Southwest, at the Chris Bubany Holiday Market at Harlow Gardens. We also sold opportunity tickets at the Tucson Quilt, Craft, and Sewing Festival, and raffled three gift baskets.

Have you made your reservations for the bus trip to Road to California? There is space left on the second bus! Don't wait and miss out on a great adventure. Fill out the request form at www.traveladventuresbymichelle.com/roadtocalifornia. Michelle will send you an invoice that can be paid by credit card. (She does not need a passport number!)

We will be selling tickets for our quilt Treasures of the Southwest, at the guild meetings in December and January.

Be sure to bring your money to help support a great Cause. Tickets are 1/$2 or 3/$5.

Finally, we have a new quilt donation form that is available on our website, quiltforacause.org, and at the Quilt for a Cause table at Tucson Quilt Guild meetings. Please use this for quilt donations. Thank you so much!

PATTERN OF THE MONTH DECEMBER 2019

“String Blocks ”

A Design by Val M. Hintze

Scrap Buster Foundation Strip Piecing

(This block will-not be used as a block giveaway.)

Instructions

Use unbleached muslin, ugly fabric, or paper as a foundation for this block. Cut foundation 12.5" x 12.5".

The width of strips can be 2.5" wide or various widths using strips from your scrap bag. Strip layout for this block pattern is diagonal on-point.

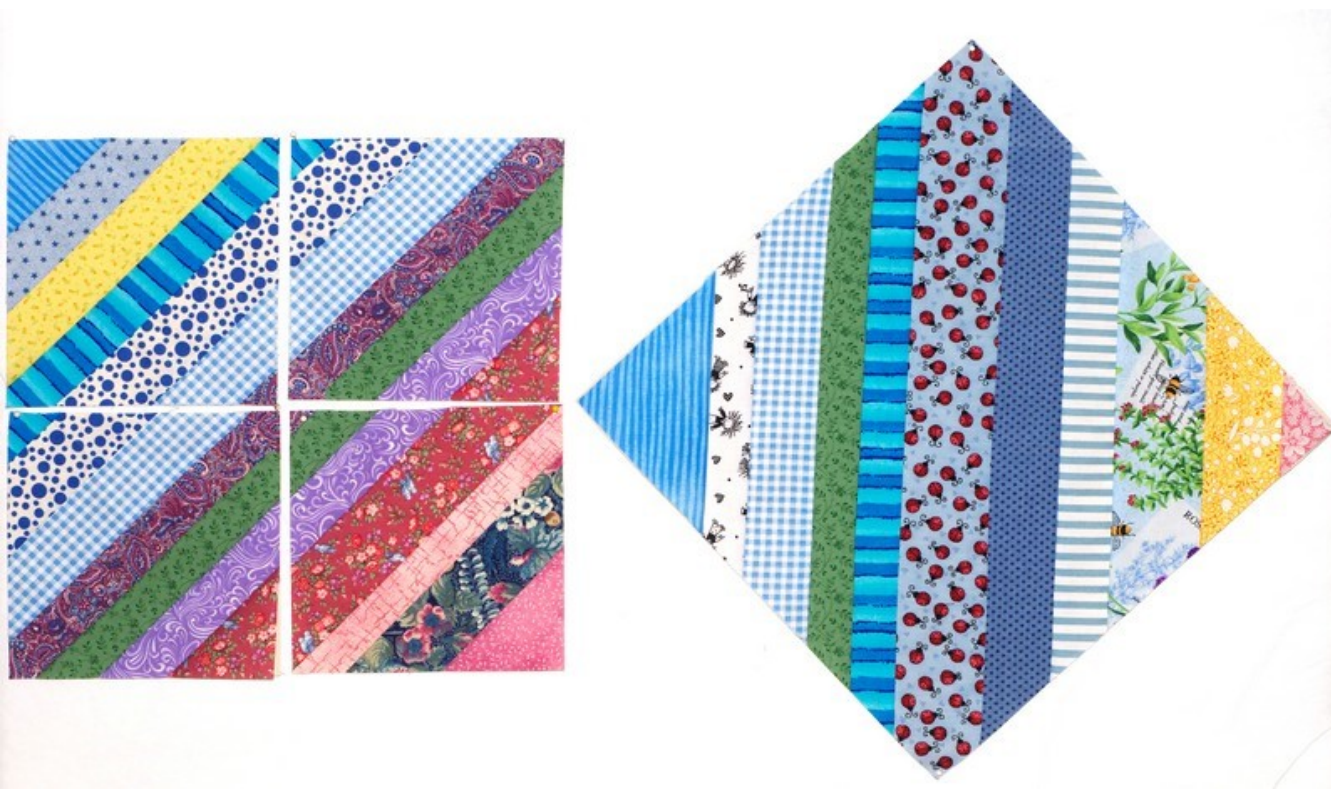

Place the first strip right-side-up on foundation from one corner to the next corner. All strips should be long enough to overlap the corners/sides (you'll trim later).

Place the next strip right-side-down on top of the first strip, aligning edges, sew with 1/4" seam. Open and press seam flat. Keep adding strips, sewing, pressing, until the right side of the foundation is filled. Repeat the process in the same manner to fill left side.

Turn your square over, use the foundation as a guide to trim dangling strip ends AND resize your square to measure 12"X12".

Cut large square in half and in half again to turn into (four) 6" x 6" squares. Arrange to create interesting designs. Sew squares together.

Make a lot of these fun scrap buster blocks for quick and easy quilts tops, table runners, place mats, tote bags, etc.
